Hannah Horton is a freelance performer, teacher and coach specialising in woodwind. As a youngster she attended the prestigious Junior Guildhall School of Music and Drama and in her teens became a lead member of NYJO (National Youth Jazz Orchestra) and the National Youth Music Theatre. Hannah continued her studies at Goldsmiths, followed by Trinity College of Music gaining her Advanced Postgraduate Performance Diploma. Accomplished on flute, bassoon and clarinet as well as sax, she now teaches her own students to a high level whilst pursuing her performing career with the Hannah Horton Quartet in London and the South East. In addition to leading her own jazz quartet, Hannah is a composer in her own right. She has played alongside many great jazz musicians including John Etheridge, Ian Shaw, Tina May, Acoustic Triangle, Simon Bates, Irene Serra, Buster Cooper and John Lamb and at venues as diverse as Royal Festival Hall, Planet Hollywood and Pizza Express Jazz Club. She has entertained the Royal Family and performed on TV. Hannah teaches locally both privately and at Linton Village College, Coleridge, Parkside, Castle Camps Primary School, SWCHS and The Meadows Balsham.

Steve Hynes is an experienced performer and teacher with the ability to teach all ages and abilities. He has performed with Pete King, Mark Nightingale, Alan Barnes and Steve Waterman. He plays locally with the 78 R.P.M big band, Eddie Seales Big Band, Prime Brass and is the drummer for The Arts Theatre Pantomime. Steve has played at numerous theatres and for musical tours both nationally and internationally. He teaches Individual lessons and percussion groups at The Friend's School, RAB, SWCHS, Hills Road Sixth Form College and privately.

Tim Pannell studied Trumpet at the Royal Academy of Music and Music Technology at ARU. He is the principal cornet of Haverhill Silver Band and plays with the brass quintet Tube. Tim has appeared on recordings with Ronnie Wood and Paul Weller. He works at a number of Primary and Secondary schools in the Cambridge area, as well as teaching Brass, Guitar, Drums, Piano and Music Theory privately.

Carla Robinson studied at the Royal Academy of Music. Over the last 25 years she has enjoyed a huge range of freelance orchestral work, teaching work and chamber music which have taken her all around the world. Her lifetime motto "variety is the spice of life" has taken her from chamber music concerts in New York, opera contracts in Parma, Italy, to playing in authentic Mariachi and Tango bands, playing on the Orient express and QE2 to appearances on Top of the Pops to name a few. She currently runs a quartet "Le Soiree" with her husband Gideon a violinist in the Philharmonia Orchestra and has recently been appointed violin teacher at Saffron Walden County High School. Her interest in alternative therapies prompted her to qualify as a professional Reflexologist and `Reiki practitioner in 2002 where she runs a thriving clinic from home.

Louis Thorne has been a professional musician for the past 20 years or so and during this time has devoted a significant proportion of his time to teaching, in schools such as The Perse, Oundle, The Leys and King's Ely. He still works at the latter two, as well as at the Friends' school in Saffron Walden and at Linton Village College. Louis has performed at Glastonbury, The Big Chill, and Secret Garden festivals, at Ronnie Scott's, the London Hippodrome, Pizza on the Park and the 100 Club, played in the West End production of "Cabaret" and has written and recorded music that has appeared on television, film and radio worldwide.

All tutors are experienced teachers and performers, and have been police checked for teaching young people.
